The case will go to I the supreme Court on exceptions taken to various rullings of the court.

The Truth of History.

A special correspondent of the Cincinnatic Commercial clases an account of a visit to the Hermitage by saying:

Mrs. Jacksorf informed us that she did not regard "Parton's Life of Jackson" as doing justice to the General, and so incorrect, in fact, that she would not purchase a copy of it. She said that she was absent at the time Mr. Parton side the Hermitage, and that he gained his information from the negro servants. She seemed to regard this a surrepititious way of gathering facts.

FOR CONGRESS BOYD WINCHESTER, OF LOUISVILLE.

FOR THE STATE SENATE STIR DISTRICE. DR. E. D. STANDIFORD,

Of Jefferson County. A Radical Demagogue. In his speech at Lafayette, Indiana, Mr.

In 1869 you know men dared to stand up the South and denounce secession, and declar their devotion to the Union; now no man et do so without being in danger of liss life speakers in the South teach people to ostress those who speak in defense of the Union.

It is by statements like these, statemen as utterly devoid of truth and full of ma evolent intentions as if they had come red didate of the Radical party for the second office in the Government attempts to de lude the Northern people. It is by means such as this, means to which those noted the least scrupulous demagogues of a par age and of other countries would scarcel stooped for the attainment of a political end, that the Radical candidate for the Vice Presidency seeks to accomplish his own

The exercise of the largest amount charity does not suffice to induce the belief that Schuyler Colfax really himself credited that which he has deliberately stated as to the inauguration of a war of races. Under the management of peculiarly zealous fact. He is not a Solomon by any Radical agents that war seems already to means, but then it is certain that he is no have been commenced in a few localities fool; and, possessed as he is of the means of correct information regarding the situa-tion of the country, it is absolutely imposof the whites it might have been general sible that he should believe in the truth of It were well if Camilla and Opelousas what he so formally and positively asseverates. Can be make anybody else be-lieve it? served as a lesson to teach the negroes what they are to expect if they persist in the course marked out by Radical policy. We have often been amazed at the ex tent to which Radical newspapers pre sumed upon the gullibility of the masse The New York Tribune, in very near every issue, treats its readers to some in dent and unblushing falsehood of which almost rivals the celebrated fictions o Titus Oates and his co-conspirator and, as this sort of thing is repeated again and again, no room is left for doubting exists. Nor is the conduct of the Tribun at all exceptional. This, it must be con fessed, is not very complimentary to the intelligence of our Northern brethren, for unless people are absolute dolts, it is im le long to keep them in ignorance of the real situation. Mr. Colfax holds popu ar intelligence in the same slight estim tion in which the leading journalists of his party hold it. He is clearly of their opinion that public sentiment is a piece of metal, and that any impression may be stamped upon it that is desired.

Mr. Colfax says in 1860 "men dared to stand up in the South and denounce seces sion," but that they dare not do so now Now what is the truth? So far as our obser vation extends, and we are sure ours is the experience of the entire Southern people, the question of secession, being regarded e uth as settled by the result of the war, is not now, and has at no time since the cessatiou of hostilities been, at issue or under consideration. Only in the effort of Mr. Colfax and his political friends to keep ap the issues of the war does secession now have any existence whatever We never see any discussion of it except in Radical editorials, and rarely hear anything about it save in the speeches of Radiman "denounces secession" at the South, it while to do so, since it is not held as a practical political doctrine by any party or set of men. Certainly it never en his_associates to utter so monstrous a false hood as that nobody dares to oppose it, Equally true is Mr. Colfax's assertic those who declare their devotion to the Union are "in danger of their lives. If possible this is even a more monstron fabrication than the first. When the Radical candidate gave utterance to the state ment he could not but be aware that ever day men are publicly "declaring their de-votion to the Union" at the South, and that not only are not in danger of their lives from so doing, but are heartily sympathized with by the people. The Southpair. ern people desire nothing so ardently as the restoration of the old Union. Having long since given up all thought of a separat nationality, they know that their only hop pair. of liberty and constitutional government lies in the re-establishment and preserva tion of the Union of the fathers. Not a pair. ers do not advocate Union sentiments be ets at $10 00 per pair. fore Southern audiences, and in which they are not applauded for so doing; Those whe "speak in defense of the Union" are no the best value to be found in the only not "ostracised" at the South, but the city. are honored, and their counsels hearkened 500 PIECES NEW DRESS GOODS. Happy would it be for the country i Mr. Colfax and his friends equally honor and for sale cheap, S. BARKER & CO. and defended the advocates of the Union people" that it is alike their duty and their is the basis of the Union; and no disunion or proscriptive sentiments are ever heard there except from Mr. Colfax's friends, the

But when Colfax declares that Union sentiment is not tolerated at the South, he doubtless means that Radical sentiment is not tolerated there. Even this is not true. It is remarkable that such should be the case, but the Southern people patiently submit to hearing Radical speakers utter the worst of treasonable doctrines from antagonistic to the restoration of the Union and destructive of the tranquillity of the country. Radical emissaries and orators est goods ever offered just received. are allowed to say just what they please and although the burden of their speeche tends, like that of Mr. Colfax, to disunion, and, what is, perhaps, of more immediate interest, to the inauguration of a war of races, still with a wonderful forbearance the people of the South suffer them to go on. Never were words of demagogue more deliberately false and designing than were those uttered at Lafayette by Schuyler cloaks before buying elsewhere, Colfax, the Radical candidate for the Vice
